You Complete My Heart: When you touch a man's heart, he will remember it forever! Dixie Waters
YOU Complete My Heart is about two young lovers. They experience sexual attraction for the first time. First love is like no other love. Nothing seems to be as important as that other special love interest. Their lives are drawn together by raging hormones, but separated by more than just town boundaries. Parental discipline and abuse along with jealousy drives them apart. However, life has its own way of deciding what will be, and many years later they meet and light that destiny flame again. Do you remember those days when you were in love for the first time?
