From the "Jerry Cole Vault" comes a previously unpublished short story "Law of Passion".

When night hits the city, vandals and burglars aren't the only ones to come out at night. A late night call gets Luke to save Jesse from his drunken ex, but what happens when he starts to feel things for the man he saved?

Luke's been on the force for a while. He knows the ins and outs of the streets. He and his partner, Sam, were a force to be reckoned with. After tragedy strikes, Luke tries to move on to find someone to fill the void that Sam left in his heart, but no one could ever compare.

Right when Luke loses hope, he gets a domestic violence call and is shocked to see a man cowering from a woman. Concerned for the man and starting to grow attached, he gives the man, Jesse, his number and the confusing thoughts only flourish the night after in a sensual dream that makes him want more when he wakes up...

Can this straight cop find a replacement for his partner... in a different way?
