WORDS from WILHELMINA: 6th Installment Wilhelmina

I'm 75 years old, a teller of tales and a weaver of spells. I almost believe in magic.

Words from Wilhelmina are my stories, my journal entries, and my correspondence with my new pen-pals, James and Val Robitaille, and with Hope and Tivon, whom I have dubbed The Fearless Four. I feel privileged to be hearing firsthand from them of their day-to-day efforts to bring Free Energy to the planet through their Fix the World projects

I paste all the letters from The Fearless Four into my Words

I write for myself, to learn and to remember, and I care very little about you, Dear Reader, if anything at all. Sorry, this may be rude and ungracious of me, particularly if you've just shelled out a handful of hard-earned cash for the privilege of reading this, but that's the way it is.

My dream is, in what remains of my life, to see with my own eyes the 'Sudden Spread of Free Energy and the QEG', and the 'Smooth and Sudden Transition of our Planet into its Golden Age'. It's a big dream, I know. When my brother tells me what's on the eleven o'clock news, then my dream seems like the dream of a fool, but I'm hanging on to it, in the way that a drowning man clings to his straw.

At the moment, in my Words from Wilhelmina, I'm writing of my personal explorations into my own inner landscape. I feel this exploration is essential, because if we're to survive, then we must step across the threshold into a new age, and a new age requires new ways of thinking.

I am also keenly interested in learning how to establish a line of communication with the people who have been travelling here from distant star systems, and who, I strongly suspect, are trying to give us a helping hand so that we can get over the huge hurdles that challenge all of us at the present moment.

I'm absolutely sure that those four, very bright and very close to me, flashing lights in the nighttime sky that Theresa and I watched for an hour as they cruised slowly above our heads, were no accident. They came to say a personal hello to us, and I would very much like to know what else they have to say, if only I can learn to speak their language.

These are the topics you can expect me to be writing about as I continue my personal journey

You can also expect me to make cutting comments on accepted beliefs that set limits to the range of human possibility. You can expect me to continue my experiments into the mechanics of manifesting, and you can expect me to drift with the currents of my curiosity, wherever they lead me.

You can also expect me to be fooling around and having fun because Laughter is my middle name. I live in Canada, on an island in the western sea. – Wilhelmina -
