In the heat of the moment, a Templar's judgment is his last hope.

Mythical Knights, Book 3

An Immortal Templar Knight, Sir Liam McCall is mandated to protect mortals from the mythicals of the world. Simple. Basic. He's been doing it for seven hundred years, never once playing favorites.

Leeza Hunter changed all that. As a child, her accident-prone ways compelled him to keep her safe, if only from a distance. Now that she's a woman, temptation is coming dangerously close to overriding his logic.

When Leeza meets the tall, hunky glassblower at the shop where she works, she's immediately intrigued. After all, who goes by "sir" anything, anymore? Yet some crystalline connection tells her to trust him. And that trust opens up a whole other world full of dragons, vampires, and all sorts of things that go bump in the unseen night.

But in this world, even an immortal Templar Knight must choose a path. And as the mythicals get more aggressive, Liam could have no choice but to wield his judgment over life and death. Even when it comes to the woman he loves.

This book was previously published as Broken Shine.

Warning: Grumpy immortals, klutzy women who steal hearts, and a vampire with a serious vendetta.
