If a Woman's Hair is Her Glory, Why Am I Tweezing My Chin? Martha Bolton

If a Woman's Hair is Her Glory, Why Am I Tweezing My Chin? is a collection of funny stories and vignettes from everyday life about aging, from well-known humor author Martha Bolton.

There is life after fifty. In case you were wondering. And best-selling author and very funny lady Martha Bolton is here to wax hilarious on every part of it -- from the perils of exercise to the puzzling tradition of fruitcake, the annoyance of tailgaters to the miraculous powers of pie.

Martha's humor is just as clever (and needed) as ever -- she takes on nutritional labeling, iPhones, and the upside of a recession. With chapters like, 'When One Door Closes, It's Usually on My Foot' and '12-Step Program for Buffet Addicts,' she will have you laughing your socks off. She also writes touching pieces about the things she misses -- land lines, in-store coffee shops, handwritten letters, dressing up, her parents -- and the one thing that grounds her: her faith in God.

Laugh along with Martha as she reminds you of what is truly important and turns the normal stuff of life -- after fifty -- into riotous fun. Foreword by Ann Jillian.
