No matter how hard Karen tried not to think about Belinda, she just couldn't get her out of her mind. And she knew that the only way she was going to manage this was by getting to make a move... and since she was a little bit shy, there was only one person that could run that errand for her.

"What? Hell no! I can't do it! Come on sis! Haven't you heard how many people that girl has rejected? I am not about to be added on to that list. Please, don't make me do it!"

"I am sure she won't bite. All you need to do is deliver this note and leave. That's all. And I promise that I won't ask you any favors."

Kevin knew that his big sister wasn't going to let up. So he caved in. Karen watched from her bedroom window as his brother made his way through the lawn and to Belinda's front door and she crossed her fingers.

Will she fall for her or will she reject her?
