Tess was an accomplished writer of mystery novels, but wanted to expand her horizons into the BDSM genre. Unfortunately, since she had precisely zero real experience with bondage or discipline, her first few attempts didn't do very well. Unwilling to give up, she decided to do a little field research at a popular BDSM club, where she met Master William.

Both sympathetic and amused at her plight, he offered her a deal. If she agreed to become his submissive for a year, he'd guarantee she'd learn enough about living the lifestyle to write the best seller she was hoping for. Despite her fear and uncertainty, it was an offer she could only answer one way.

Yes Master.
