Learning With Puppets (Puppet Library) David Currell

Learning with Puppets is a practical, easy-to-follow guide to puppetry as a teaching tool. The author, an experienced puppeteer may be used successfully in helping young people of all ages develop their language, reading, and mathematics skills. He also discusses the important and growing use of puppets for teaching children with special needs--the physically handicapped and learning disabled--and shows how puppetry can contribute to their social and emotional development.
