More About the Author

When Amy Rigby landed in Cusco in 2014 with little more than a backpack and a pocket Spanish phrasebook, she never expected her 10-day trip would turn into a five-month stay. Initially she made many rookie mistakes, and was frustrated at not being able to find a guidebook for travelers who, like her, came to Cusco for a short visit, but fell in love with the city and chose to stay awhile. Armed with the knowledge from personal experiences, interviews with other expats, and discussions with the locals, Amy decided to write that guide.
