Here's the deal.

I'm not a lesbian.

Not by a long shot.

I never even had the experimental stage in college.

Why?

I went to a Baptist University and well, I was a goody-two-shoes girl. Making out with another girl because someone dared you at a frat party didn't exist in my world then. In fact, a frat party with alcohol would get you kicked out of school.

Oh, and did I mention something?

I married a pastor at twenty-one.

What does that mean?

I was a virgin and I never even experimented at all with anyone else or anything.

Did you read that? Nothing. I know. I'm deprived of the "worldly ways" of sexuality.

Yet there is something I'm just so sure of. And I can't help but to fantasize about such things especially when I drink a glass or two of wine by myself.

So one night while my husband was away overseas, I invited my lesbian neighbor over for a few drinks to see if perhaps I could test my theory out. And my plan worked!

This 3k lesbian explorative erotica short story will get you all hot and bothered.
