Lilia couldn't help but wonder what was going on in her world. In fact spent a lot of her time wondering exactly that as she sat at the desk of the blood bank. She heard people talk about blood shortages on the news and she believed it. It was almost impossible to get people to come into this office. They had better luck when they went to people, but it still wasn't enough. She had spent so many hours lamenting the bad luck that surrounded the process that she worked so closely with that she didn't know when she wasn't lamenting that fact anymore.
