Gender Law and Policy (Aspen College) Katharine T. Bartlett, Deborah L. Rhode

Gender Law and Policy touches on every area of life-topics that reach us all-such as employment, family, education, and sexual identity. Katharine T. Bartlett and Deborah L. Rhode offer a theoretical framework that supports thoughtful and systematic analysis, alongside over 100 practical questions of contemporary law and policy.

Features:

- Organized in theoretical frameworks to enable student to grasp different conceptualizations of equality and justice.
- Provides complete, up-to-date coverage of conventional "women and the law" issues, including employment law, affirmative action, sexual harassment, reproductive rights, domestic violence, Title IX, and poverty and race.
- Shows the complex ways in which gender permeates the law, including issues relating to property, ethics, contracts, sports, and criminal law.
- Tailors cases to undergraduate use, almost entirely omitting procedural issues
