The Psychology of Handwriting: Secrets of Handwriting Analysis Nadya Olyanova

Every gesture a man makes is a clue to his character; the way he walks, talks, laughs, shakes hands. But one of the most important clues is the way he writes. Because he concentrates on what he is writing without sensing the formation of letters and words, he reveals more about himself this way than in any single gesture. Handwriting discloses the real person, his emotional barometer, thinking pattern, and the effect of the emotions upon his behavior. It shows a picture of the whole person...
