The West: An Illustrated History Geoffrey C. Ward

A beautifully done coffee table book with different photographers, writers and illustrators depicting different eras. It is the story of the American West, we believe, is at once the story of a unique part of the country and a metaphor for the country as a whole. With all its heroism and inequity, exploitation and adventure, sober realities and bright myths, it is the story of all of us, no matter where on the continent we happened to live, no matter how recently our ancestors arrived on its shores.
