Love in the Ghetto 2 Nako

What would you do if the one you loved possibly betrayed you? Is forgiveness even an option? How do the words, “I’m sorry” make you feel when you’ve been lied to for so long?

Evelyn is forced to choose between the man she gave her heart to, and the father who taught her that love will get you killed. She is confused, worried, and full of anxiety— and long with her back against the wall, she’s left with no choice but to choose between family and happiness.

Love in the Ghetto II goes beneath the surface to exploit the real meaning of finding love in these cold-hearted streets. Evelyn is a gangstress, true enough; but the four letter word means more to her than she cares to admit. She refuses to give herself away all in the name of living happily ever after. Questions will be answered, identities will be revealed, but the mystery of it all will still remain unsolved.
