We all want to be correct. We spend some of our most formative years in school learning the “correct” answers to questions. But what happens when we realize that being correct is harder than we suspected? In this 10-week study, we consider how to live biblically correct lives in a culture that challenges our convictions. We consider some of life’s most difficult topics, including: seeing the world through biblical eyes, relationships, sexuality, life and death, and the public square.
