God Delights in the Prayers of His Children Abridged Edition: Praying God's Word Back to Him through Scripture-Based Prayers

God Delights in the Prayer of His Children provides Scripture-based prayers for all kinds of life's situations; from honoring God, to praying for children, loved ones, finances, and even yourself. The goal of this book is not just to emphasize the importance of prayer, but to help your prayer life to grow more fruitful by suggesting ways to incorporate Scripture into your everyday prayers.

Praying with the Bible provides the practical help and insight we all need so that we can pray more consistently and effectively. Praying this way fills us with fresh understanding of God's Word and creates faith-building confidence that God will do all He said He will do.

As you meditate on the Scriptures woven into these prayers, allow them to enter your heart, and speak them out loud. Use these prayers in addition to, not instead of, your personal prayers to God. Praying with Scriptures will increase your spiritual growth, and you will discover what God says about certain situations. The Bible is our instruction manual for life, and by praying God's Word back to Him, we show Him we agree with Him.

This book has been prepared to assist those who are seeking God in prayer. So often we may not be sure what to pray for. However, we can count on the Holy Spirit. He knows all about God's Word and all about our needs. Each day, we need to ask God by praying and reading His Word to show us how to bring His Word and our prayers together. After all, being in the perfect will of God and living according to His revealed will should be the highest aspiration of our lives.
