Where Thunder Sleeps, A Novel David Cope

A young man, born and raised in Brooklyn, drifts along with no idea of his future goals. But when his well-to-do parents die in a tragic accident off the cliffs of California's Big Sur coastline, he finds himself driving west to attend their funeral. On the way, he stays in a small Arizona town called Holbrook. Near his motel he meets a strange woman who runs a small diner and an even stranger man with a special story to tell about his white Mormon parents coming to Navajo country to save the Indians from their supposedly heathen ways. And about how he grew up respecting the way of the Navajo. Confused by his now bi-cultural heritage, he commits an unspeakable crime. His bride-to-be, a Navajo girl, then perishes in a catastrophic flood. Years later, when this strange man convinces our traveler to write the tale into a book, they return to the scene of the flood to better understand his memories and to face the futures they may or may not live to experience.

Lisa Mercado:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
