Meet Princess, the go getter who provides for herself and the ones she loves by any means necessary. She's a lady that knows how to keep it cute, but can get down and dirty in the streets as good as any man. While she is striving to fulfill her dreams to open up a hair salon, she runs into more than a few bumps in the road. From murder to her man, Doja's, delusional old "friend," Jazelle. Jazelle's life is a whirlwind after she loses both of her parents in a tragic accident. Being accustomed to a certain lifestyle and moving in life with no direction can be a deadly combination. She decides that the only way to get money is to take it, so she decides to do just that. One day, she runs into Doja after six years of no contact, and he offers her a proposition that she can't refuse. Unfortunately for him, the Jazelle that he once knew is long gone. He realizes that he is dancing with the devil, but is it too late? In this story of drugs, money, and violence, only one can come out on top. Who will it be?
