Lost and Found (A Contemporary Romance) Katerina Winters

"When everything seemed to be at its darkest, he came into her life and rescued her."

She was an ever smiling innocent. Rescued from sleeping on the streets, Misha stepped into the dangerous family of the Russian mafia. Her smiling bright nature was in violent contrast with the mob boss. Mikhail Kulakov was quiet, lethal, calculative, --and ten years her senior.

As she grew older gratitude turned into a secret desire towards her hardened criminal guardian.

Forbidden feelings...

At first, she was simply just a distraction to his routine life. Then the years passed taking the young girl with them, leaving behind a beautiful young woman under his roof. It took everything Mikhail had to ignore his ward's sweet and innocent allure. His little Misha did not deserve a hardened criminal.

But he would be damned before he let another man have her.

(This novel contains very mature erotic content)
