The Queen's Proposal (Africa's Snow White, Volume 5) Jonathan Eloff

In V4 (PS I Love You) Nicholas, off to war, and just about to temporarily lose contact with Elizabeth, finally plucks up the courage to use the words "I Love you" - Lizzie is stunned! Finally she has what she has always wanted from Nicholas, but for her to reciprocate, she will first need to know how to re-contact him! The unholy tag-team of Constance and Charles, determined to foil any such attempts - succeed! Not understanding this, Nicholas and Lizzie are both in a state of shock - each wondering why the other would be so cruel as to simply never write or reply? How can so many beautiful joint memories and feelings simply be unilaterally discarded? Elizabeth is forced to harden her heart against Nicholas and is set-up to marry Charles, her mother's choice, while Nicholas, having lost all hope, meets a young trainee teacher from neighboring Rhodesia. Lizzie get's engaged to Charles. After 3 unforgettable Summer Romances, Lizzie and Nicholas now lead separate lives - until, independently, the seemingly impossible happens to both of them - leaving a small window of opportunity for them to re-connect and reconcile - but just then, Communist Cuba invades Angola and all military leave is cancelled - so that slim-hope disappears too ... until just before Christmas 1975 (Summer Holidays in the S. Hemisphere) when the UN intervenes in this new African war, re-enabling the most impossible of meetings, to actually happen - and in the most Romantic way! What comes next is best left for this Novel, as we see all of the plots and schemes of those bent on destroying "true-love", fall apart spectacularly! These books are based on a true story and are written for a mature and/or mature-teen audience, who'll be able to relate to the hopes, dreams and struggles of teenagers and adults.
