Anthony nodded his head simply and walked over to his desk. He picked up one of the bundles of rope, turning it over in his hand thoughtfully. Angelique could feel her heart racing in her chest. EXCERPT

Angelique sat at her desk going over the details for the meeting this afternoon. She didn't have to do anything other than sit and take notes, then email them to the secretaries of everyone present, but she like to be prepared and have a good idea of what would be discussed and who would be there. This was an important meeting for her boss, as it signaled the beginning of a new business venture for him, one that had the potential to bring in a lot of money for him and his primary company, Antal Industries.

She chewed absentmindedly on the end of a pen as she prepped her notes. Suddenly, her phone beeped. The red light that flashed insistently at her let her know it was her boss, Anthony Alexander. She smiled, checked the time, and pressed the button to turn on the speaker.

"Yes, Mr. Alexander?"

"Angelique, I need to see you in my office now." His voice was flat, stern, but sent delicious chills throughout her.
