The Story of the Statue of Liberty

Benjamin Levine, Isabell F. Story

The Story of the Statue of Liberty Benjamin Levine, Isabell F. Story

The Statue of Liberty, one of the world's most iconic symbols, was a gift from the people of France to the people of the United States. Standing proudly in New York Harbor, it became a welcoming sight to scores of immigrants.

Although the statue commemorates the friendship between two countries, the gift almost didn't occur!

In this concise history, developed by the US National Park Service, you will learn how the colossal statue was conceived, financed, built, transported, and dedicated.

Whether you're planning to visit the Statue of Liberty in person or from the comfort of your home, this audiobook is the perfect companion!
